Le calendrier de l'Avent

The French Learner Advent Calendar

December is busy. Your French doesn't have to stop.

Behind each door: a French word for the season, one small thing to do today, and a free resource from my blog. Open one door a day, or open them all at once and plan your month.

Ten minutes a day fits into your life.

Want more French?

I share loads of French chat mats, listening activities and readings on the blog. Pick what you enjoy. If you get bored, you will quit.
