

Reflexive Verbs in Spanish (Los Verbos Reflexivos)

Reflexive verbs describe actions that a person performs on themselves. They use reflexive pronouns to show that the subject and the object are the same—meaning the person doing the action is also receiving it.

1) What Is a Reflexive Verb?

A reflexive verb is one that uses a reflexive pronoun (me, te, se, nos, os, se).

In English, we sometimes use “myself,” “yourself,” “themselves,” etc. But Spanish uses reflexive verbs more frequently — often for daily routines, emotions, or changes in state.

Example:

- Yo me levanto temprano. → I get up early.
(Literally: I lift myself up.)

Here, me shows that the action (levantar) reflects back on the same person performing it.

2) Reflexive Pronouns

Subject	Reflexive Pronoun	English
yo	me	myself
tú	te	yourself
él / ella / usted	se	himself / herself / yourself
nosotros / nosotras	nos	ourselves
vosotros / vosotras	os	yourselves (Spain)
ellos / ellas / ustedes	se	themselves / yourselves

These pronouns always refer back to the subject of the sentence.

3) Structure of Reflexive Verbs

The infinitive form includes the -se ending:

- lavar → lavarse → to wash oneself
- vestir → vestirse → to get dressed
- bañar → bañarse → to bathe oneself

When conjugated, the -se is removed and replaced by the appropriate pronoun before the conjugated verb.

Formula:

Subject + reflexive pronoun + conjugated verb

Subject	Example Verb: lavarse (to wash oneself)
yo	me lavo
tú	te lavas
él / ella / Ud.	se lava
nosotros	nos lavamos
vosotros	os laváis
ellos / ellas / Uds.	se lavan

Meaning:

Me lavo las manos. → I wash my hands.

4) Reflexive Verbs vs. Non-Reflexive Verbs

Some verbs can be used both reflexively and non-reflexively, changing the meaning slightly.

Non-Reflexive	Reflexive	Difference
levantar → to lift	levantarse → to get up
llamar → to call	llamarse → to call oneself / be named
poner → to put	ponerse → to put on (clothing)
dormir → to sleep	dormirse → to fall asleep
ir → to go	irse → to leave / go away
acordar → to agree	acordarse (de) → to remember
quedar → to stay / remain	quedarse → to stay (in a place)
probar → to taste / try	probarse → to try on (clothing)

Examples:

- Me llamo Ana. → My name is Ana.
- Se pone una chaqueta. → She puts on a jacket.
- Nos dormimos a las once. → We fall asleep at eleven.

5) Common Reflexive Verbs (Daily Routine)

divertirse (e → ie)	to have fun

Example:

Cada mañana me despierto, me ducho y me visto. → Every morning I wake up, shower, and get dressed.

6) Reflexives with Body Parts and Clothing

When talking about body parts or clothing, Spanish uses definite articles (el, la, los, las) — not possessive adjectives (my, your, etc.).

Examples:

- Me lavo las manos. → I wash my hands.
- Se cepilla los dientes. → He brushes his teeth.
- Nos ponemos los abrigos. → We put on our coats.

7) Placement of Reflexive Pronouns

A. Before a Conjugated Verb

- Me levanto a las siete. → I get up at seven.
- Nos duchamos después del ejercicio. → We shower after exercising.

B. Attached to an Infinitive

When there are two verbs, the reflexive pronoun can attach to the end of the infinitive.

Both options are correct:

- Me voy a dormir.
- Voy a dormirme. → I'm going to go to sleep.

C. Attached to a Gerund (Progressive)

With the present progressive, attach the pronoun to the gerund (or place it before estar).

Both options are correct:

- Me estoy duchando.
- Estoy duchándome. → I'm showering.

Remember: add an accent to maintain pronunciation when attaching a pronoun to a gerund.

8) Reflexive Verbs in Other Tenses

You can use reflexive verbs in any tense — just move the pronoun accordingly.

Present

Me levanto temprano.

Preterite

Me levanté tarde.

Imperfect

Me levantaba a las seis cada día.

Future

Me voy a levantar temprano. / Voy a levantarme temprano.

Present Progressive

Estoy levantándome ahora. / Me estoy levantando ahora.

9) Reflexive Pronouns with Commands

A. Affirmative Commands

Attach the pronoun to the end of the verb (and add an accent).

- ¡Levántate! → Get up!
- ¡Siéntate! → Sit down!
- ¡Vístete! → Get dressed!
- ¡Dúchate! → Take a shower!

B. Negative Commands

Place the pronoun before the verb.

- ¡No te levantes! → Don't get up!
- ¡No se preocupe! → Don't worry (formal).

10) Reflexive vs. Reciprocal Actions

When two or more people do something to each other, the same reflexive pronouns are used — but the meaning is reciprocal.

Reflexive

Me miro en el espejo. → I look at myself.

Se llama Carlos. → His name is Carlos.

Reciprocal

Nos miramos. → We look at each other.

Se llaman todos los días. → They call each other every day.

Context determines whether se / nos / os is reflexive (self) or reciprocal (each other).
