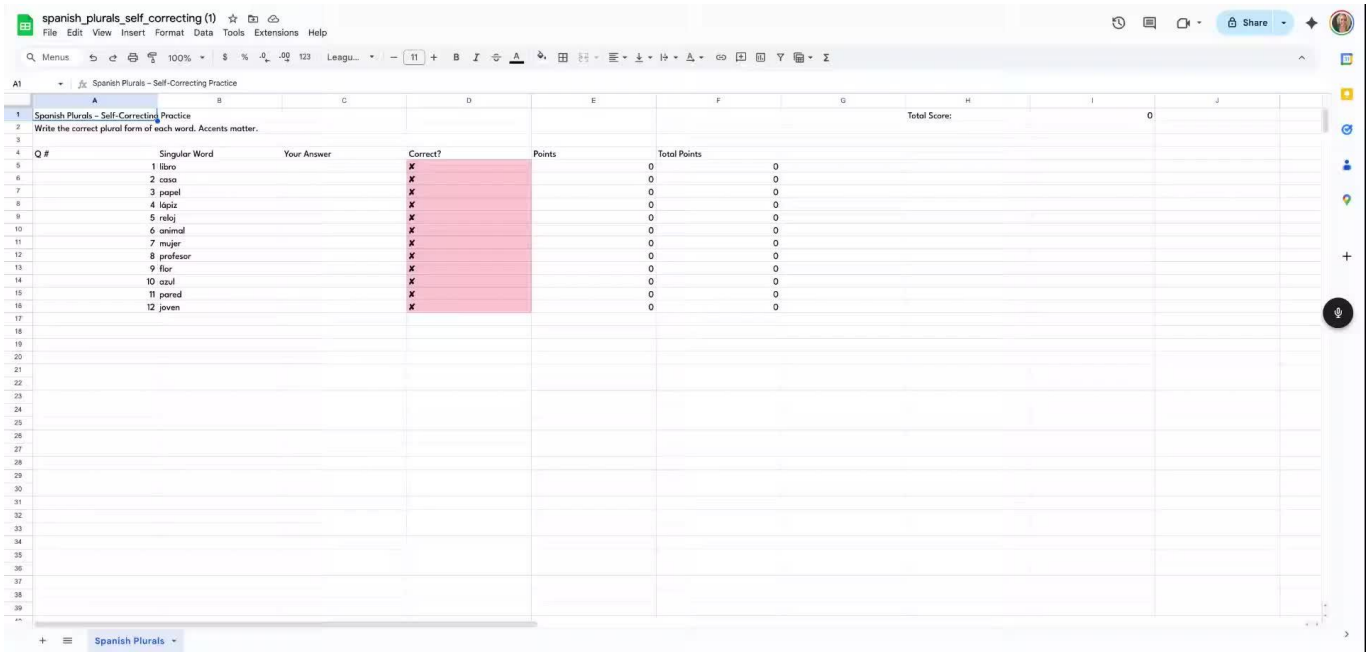
Self-checking Spanish Learning Activities- Adjectives

Objective

This SOP outlines the steps to use and share Spanish learning activities using self-checking sheets for independent learners and teachers.

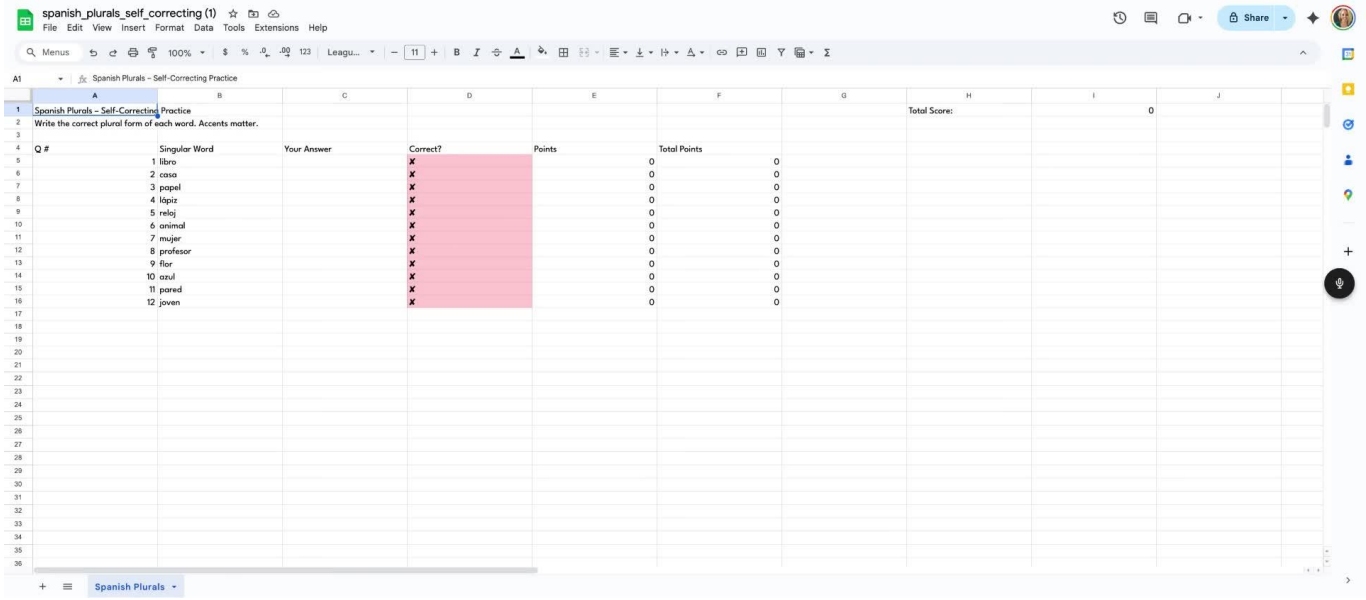
Key Steps

1. Understanding the Importance of Practice 0:00



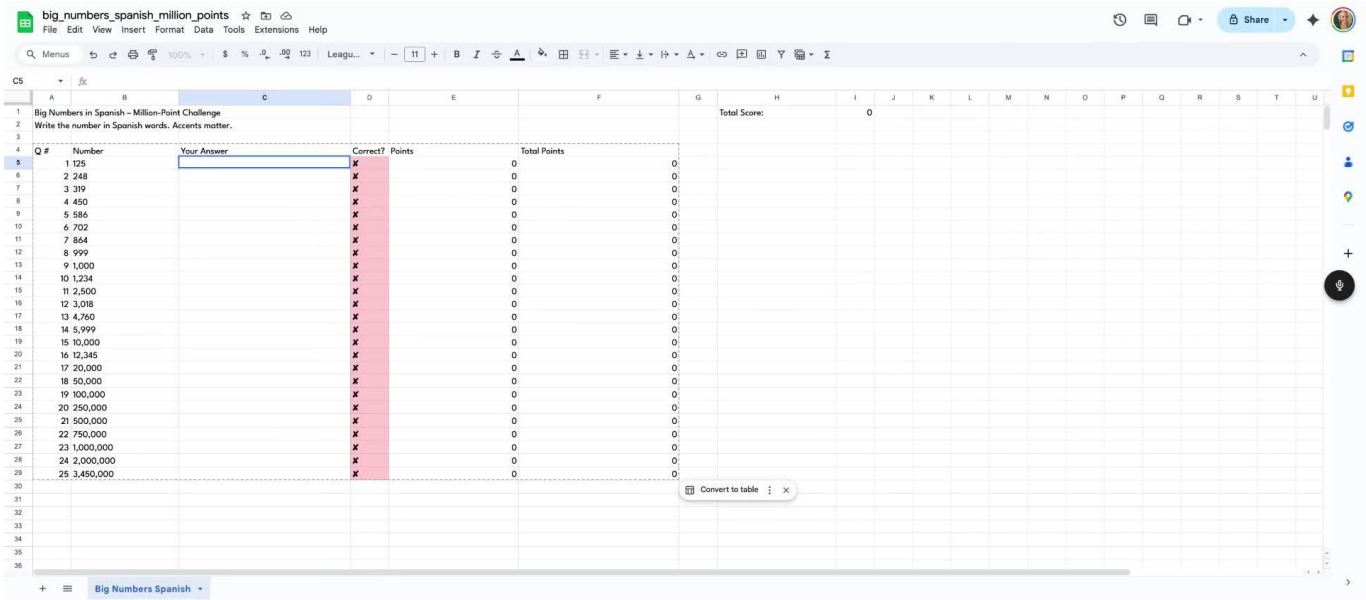
- Recognize that grammar is best acquired through natural conversation and exposure to language in various forms (reading, viewing, listening).
- Acknowledge the need for explicit practice to build automaticity in language skills.

2. Creating Self-Checking Sheets 0:47



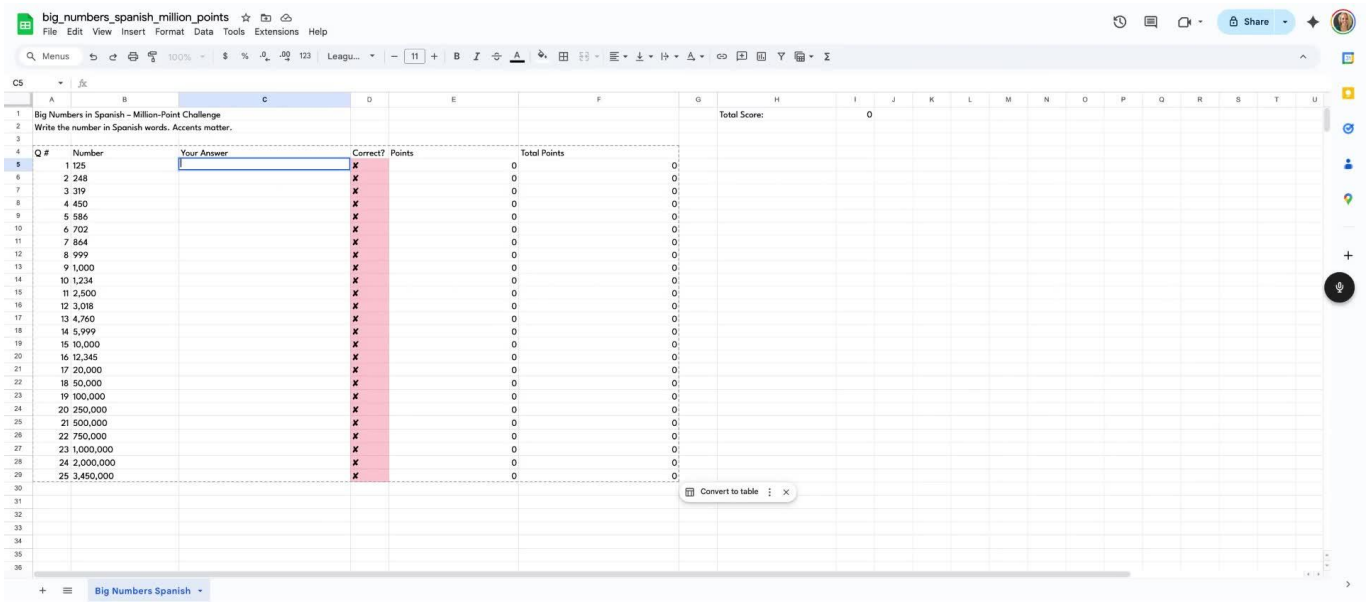
- Include activities that allow learners to write down answers and check their correctness.

3. Downloading and Using Sheets 2:14



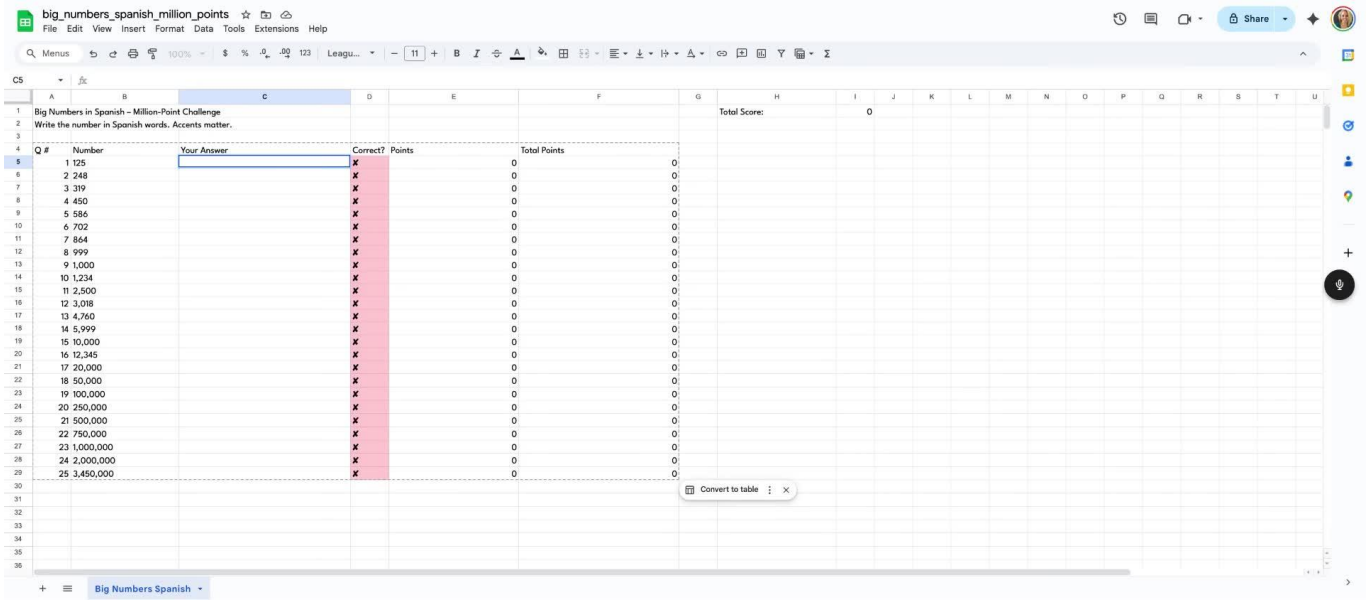
- For independent learners, download the self-checking sheets and upload them to your drive.
- Convert sheets to Google Sheets for optimal functionality.

4. Sharing with Students 2:37



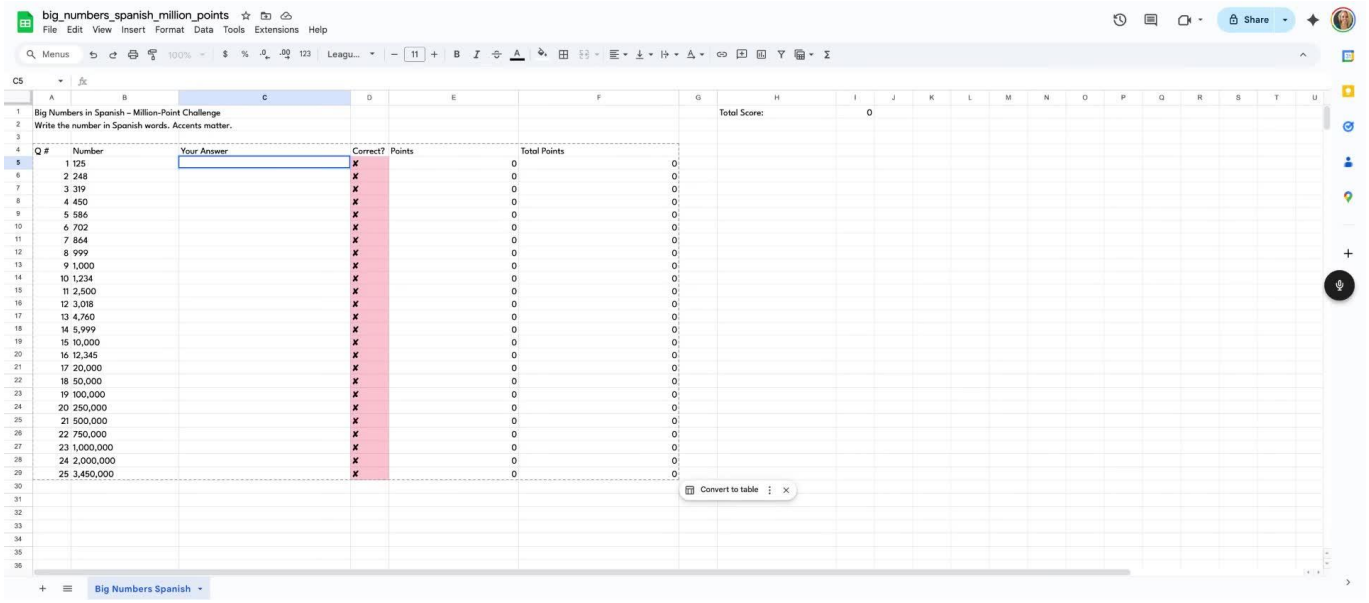
- If you are a teacher, make a copy of the sheets before sharing.
- Share the sheets with students through platforms like Google Classroom.

5. Group Work and Collaboration 3:06



- Encourage students to make copies of the sheets for group work.
- Facilitate sharing among group members to enhance collaborative learning.

6. Accessing Additional Resources 3:06



- Link to a blog post that outlines the steps and provides access to all forms for further assistance.

Cautionary Notes

- Ensure that all learners have access to the necessary tools (e.g., Google Sheets) to complete the activities.
- Verify that the self-checking sheets are functioning correctly before sharing with students.

Tips for Efficiency

- Use templates for self-checking sheets to save time on future activities.
- Regularly update the activities based on learner feedback to keep them engaging and relevant.
