

Spanish -ER and -IR Verb Conjugation Maze Game (Preterite Tense)

The preterite tense is one of the most important past-tense forms Spanish students need to master, especially when describing completed actions. This maze-style activity helps learners practice -ER and -IR verb endings in a fun, interactive way that reinforces accuracy through repetition and movement.

This activity works well for Spanish 1, Spanish 2, review units, station work, partner activities, or fast-finishers.

Objective

Move from START to FINISH by correctly conjugating -ER or -IR verbs in the preterite tense.

How to Play

1. Begin at the START space.
2. Move up, down, left, or right—but only if you correctly conjugate the verb in the space.
3. Each space includes a subject pronoun and an -ER or -IR verb in the infinitive.
4. Say or write the correct form before moving.
5. First student or team to reach FINISH wins.

Why Students Love This Activity

- Turns conjugation practice into a puzzle challenge.
- Builds speed and confidence with preterite forms.
- Supports visual, auditory, and kinesthetic learners.
- Works for individual, partner, or whole-class competition.
- Provides immediate, self-correcting feedback through gameplay.

Teacher Tips and Variations

- Have students read each form aloud to build pronunciation.
- Require students to use the verb in a complete sentence before moving.
- Turn the maze into a race between pairs or small groups.
- Use this activity in stations, review days, or sub plans.
- Invite students to create their own maze using vocabulary from your current unit.

Final Thoughts

This -ER and -IR Preterite Maze Game offers high-impact practice in a format students enjoy. It keeps conjugation work active, meaningful, and fun while reinforcing one of the foundational past-tense patterns in Spanish. If you'd like additional maze games for -AR verbs, irregular preterites, imperfect tense, or mixed conjugation review, I can create those too.
