

Spanish -IR Verb Conjugation Maze Game (Present Tense)

Present-tense -IR verbs are essential for describing daily actions, routines, and preferences. This maze-style conjugation game helps students practice forms in a fun, interactive way that feels more like a puzzle than a grammar drill. It's ideal for partner work, stations, warm-ups, fast-finishers, or even a full-class race.

Objective

Move from START to FINISH by correctly conjugating -IR verbs in the present tense.

How to Play

1. Begin at the START space.
2. You may move up, down, left, or right—only if you correctly conjugate the verb in the space.
3. Each space includes a subject pronoun and an infinitive.
4. Say or write the correct present-tense form before moving.
5. First player to reach FINISH wins.

Why This Activity Works

- Students apply conjugation skills in an engaging format.
- The maze structure adds strategy and movement.
- It reinforces present-tense patterns through repetition.
- Works well for individual, partner, or competitive play.
- No prep beyond printing the maze or projecting it.

Classroom Extensions

- Have students map and record their path as they go.
- Require complete sentences for added rigor.
- Create alternate mazes using stem-changers, irregulars, or mixed verbs.
- Turn it into a timed relay race or team challenge.
- Let students design their own maze as a culminating project.
