

Spanish Verb Conjugation Maze Game (Conditional Tense)

The conditional tense is an important structure for expressing hopes, hypothetical situations, polite requests, and what someone “would” do. This maze-style conjugation game offers students a fun and interactive way to practice forming the conditional—turning grammar review into a puzzle challenge.

This activity is great for partner work, warm-ups, stations, fast-finishers, or as an engaging review before assessments.

Objective

Move from START to FINISH by correctly conjugating verbs in the conditional tense.

How to Play

1. Begin at the START space.
2. You may move up, down, left, or right, but only if you correctly conjugate the verb in the space using the conditional tense.
3. Each space includes a subject pronoun and an infinitive.
4. Students must say or write the correct conditional form to move on.
5. The first player to reach FINISH wins.

Why This Activity Works

- Reinforces conditional endings through repeated meaningful practice.
- Helps students distinguish regular from irregular conditional forms.
- The maze structure adds strategy and movement, increasing engagement.
- Works for independent, partner, or competitive gameplay.
- Easy to differentiate by requiring complete sentences or timed rounds.

Ideas for Extension

- Have students write a short “What would you do?” paragraph using the verbs from their path.
- Require full-sentence responses for an added challenge.
- Ask students to create their own conditional tense maze.
- Combine this maze with others (present, preterite, imperfect) for a mixed-tense station activity.
